

Australasian Journal of Herpetology

Publishes original research in printed form in relation to reptiles, other fauna and related matters in a peer reviewed journal for permanent public scientific record. It has a global audience and is widely cited.

Full details at: <http://www.herp.net>

Online journals (this issue) appear a month after hard copy publication.

Minimum print run of first printings is always at least fifty hard copies.

Photos by Raymond Hoser:

Top: Tropidechis sadleri Hoser, 2003 from Cairns, Qld.

Bottom: Tympanocryptis pinguicollis Mitchell, 1948 from Canberra airport, ACT.

Issue 16: First published on 29 April 2013, all rights reserved.