

Get Australia's most sought-after corruption books ... before they are banned again!!!

Find out why several Australian governments, police forces and other rich and powerful people have spent millions of dollars trying to stop people like you from reading these books. Find out why even now in 2001 Victoria's Attorney General, the dishonourable Rob Hulls is yet again trying to have Raymond Hoser, Australia's leading investigative author jailed and his corruption books banned.

Find out why Hoser is also Australia's most frequently litigated and most plagiarized corruption author.

Find out why even now, in 2001, police in at least two Australian States (NSW/Victoria) are still regularly raiding bookshops and (illegally) demanding that no "Hoser corruption books" be sold.

After over 50 unsuccessful legal actions against Hoser and his publishers all books can now be legally sold. But for how much longer ... we cannot say!

... But you may still have trouble getting them in your local bookshop ... many are still too intimidated by the authorities to sell them - in spite of the huge public demand.

Until and unless Hulls succeeds in having Hoser jailed and his publishing company liquidated, you can buy any or all of Australia's most sought-after corruption books direct from the publisher or a number of top-rating internet sites.
